

Student Application Form 2020 Entry

Welcome to UWC!

UWC schools deliver a challenging and transformative education experience while inspiring students to create a more peaceful and sustainable future. At UWC, students will study toward the International Baccalaureate Diploma Program (IBDP), a rigorous academic program, and will be expected to participate in international affairs, extracurricular activities and remain engaged in the school community. We strongly encourage applicants and their families to learn more about the schools and their expectations by visiting www.uwc.org.

INSTRUCTIONS

- Submit completed application form, a copy of your official school transcript and copy of fee payment ($25.00)
- (fees to be paid at Belize Bank Account No: 177445010120000)
- Send your application to: uwcbelize@bz.uwc.org
- The closing date for application is: 15th December 2019

Selection process:

All UWC selection committees look for open-minded applicants who will thrive in an intensive, multicultural environment; have great academic potential; a commitment to community service; any 'grand passion' such as music, drama, or sport; and enthusiasm for UWC's mission and ideals.

All students attending a UWC are selected on their demonstrated promise and potential, as much as proven merit. UWC aims to allocate the places available to finalists based on demonstrated financial need.

This application is carefully reviewed and candidates are short listed for each phase of the selection process as follows:

- Phase II – Essays
- Phase III – Group Activity
- Phase IV – Individual Interviews
